DETAILED ACTION

Continued Examination Under 37 CFR 1.114

1. A request for continued examination under 37 CFR 1.114, including the fee set forth in 37 CFR 1.17(e), was filed in this application after final rejection. Since this application is eligible for continued examination under 37 CFR 1.114, and the fee set forth in 37 CFR 1.17(e) has been timely paid, the finality of the previous Office action has been withdrawn pursuant to 37 CFR 1.114. Applicant's submission filed on January 10, 2005 has been entered.

Response to Amendment

2. Applicants' amendment filed January 10, 2005, has been entered and made of record.

Response to Arguments

3. Applicants' arguments have been fully considered but they are not persuasive. Applicants' argue in essence that Haneda (Prior art of record) does not disclose a method or system in which information that changes defaults for the album is received from the user separately from the user setting the default.

The Examiner disagrees and indicates that, for this particular limitation, claim language in Step (c1) of Claim 1, and corresponding limitations in other independent claims are vague and indefinite. The limitation reciting, "the tag for altering the at least one default" lacks antecedent basis. The only recitation of "tag" in Step (c1) in Claim 1 recites "receiving a tag stored in at least one image file for a first portion of the plurality of images" which indicates the tag is not received separately. Claim limitation in Step (c1) further recites, "wherein the tag received in the image file in step (c1) is received in a separate communication", (Please note, it is not recited the tag for altering the at least one default).

Consequently, due to the ambiguity of the claim language, under this condition, Applicants are respectfully referred to the response in previous Office Action.

Claim Objection

4. Claim 1 and their dependent claims are objected for the following informalities:

In Line 11 of Claim 1, "at the least" should be corrected to "the at least".

Appropriate correction is required.

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 112

5. The following is a quotation of the second paragraph of 35 U.S.C. 112:

The specification shall conclude with one or more claims particularly pointing out and distinctly claiming the subject matter which the applicant regards as his invention.

6. Claims 1, 7 and 20 recite the limitation "the tag for altering the at least one default " in Line 12. There is insufficient antecedent basis for this limitation in the claim.

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 102

7. The following is a quotation of the appropriate paragraphs of 35 U.S.C. 102 that form the basis for the rejections under this section made in this Office action:

A person shall be entitled to a patent unless –

(e) the invention was described in a patent granted on an application for patent by another filed in the United States before the invention thereof by the applicant for patent, or on an international application by another who has fulfilled the requirements of paragraphs (1), (2), and (4) of section 371(c) of this title before the invention thereof by the applicant for patent.

Art Unit: 2623

The changes made to 35 U.S.C. 102(e) by the American Inventors Protection Act of 1999 (AIPA) do not apply to the examination of this application as the application being examined was not (1) filed on or after November 29, 2000, or (2) voluntarily published under 35 U.S.C. 122(b). Therefore, this application is examined under 35 U.S.C. 102(e) prior to the amendment by the AIPA (pre-AIPA 35 U.S.C. 102(e)).

8. Claims 1, 5-20 and 24-38 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 102(e) as being anticipated by Haneda (U.S. 6,459,511).

Regarding Claim 1, Haneda discloses a method for providing a user with an album including a plurality of pages, the method comprising the steps of:

(a) allowing a user to purchase at least a portion of the album, the portion of the album including a portion of the plurality of pages (Figures 19-23; Column 22, Lines 63-67, Column 23, Lines 1-29);

(b) allowing the user to set a plurality of defaults for the plurality of pages, at least one default of the plurality of defaults capable of being altered using information provided by the user (Figures 18 and 23, number of copies or size of the photographs; Column 22, Lines 49-56; Column 23, Lines 19-23; Figure 30; Column 28, Lines 5-45);

(c) receiving from the user the information, if any, and a plurality of images captured using a digital imaging device, wherein the information receiving device further includes the steps of:

(c1) receiving a tag stored in at least one image file for a first portion of the plurality of images, the tag for altering the at least one default of the plurality of defaults for the first portion of the plurality of images (As best understood by the Examiner, Figures 10 and 11; Column 19, Lines 26-67, Column 20, Lines 1-19; Figure 24, Tags IX1 and IX2, Figures 25-27 and 30; Column 23, Lines 32-67, Column 24, Column 25,

(d) altering the at least one default if the user has provided the information (Figure 11; Column 20, Lines 37-59; Figure 25, Column 24, Lines 19-39);

(e) providing the portion of the plurality of pages using the plurality of defaults (Figures 30, 31, 34-38); and

(f) allowing the user access to the at least the portion of the album (Figure 2; Column 18, Column 19, Lines 1-16).

Regarding Claim 5, Haneda further discloses the method of Claim 1 wherein the album is a printed photo album and wherein the access allowing step (f) further includes the step of:

(fl) providing the portion of the plurality of pages to the user (Figures 19-23; Column 22, Lines 63-67, Column 23, Lines 1-31).

Art Unit: 2623

Regarding Claim 6, Haneda further discloses the method of Claim 5 wherein a second portion of the plurality of images include sound and wherein the step of providing the portion of the plurality of pages further includes the steps of:

(e1) printing the portion of the plurality of pages (Figures 18 and 23; Column 22, Lines 49-62); and

(e2) providing a mechanism for a user to hear the sound for the second portion of the plurality of images (Figure 33; Column 34, Lines 30-44; Figures 34, 35, 48, 51, 53, 55; Column 42, Lines 4-11; Column 43, Lines 38-51; Column 46, Lines 1-25).

Regarding Claim 7, arguments analogous to those presented for Claims 1 and 6 are applicable to Claim 7. Haneda further discloses the mechanism includes a printed stripe playable by a scanning device and wherein the providing step (e 1) further includes the step of:

(e1i) providing the scanning device to the user (Figure 27, Film Scanner 12A).

Regarding Claim 8, Haneda further discloses the method of Claim 6 wherein the mechanism providing step (e2) further includes the step of:

(e2i) providing a user playable device within a second portion of the portion of the plurality of pages, the second portion of the plurality of pages including the portion of the plurality of images including sound (Figures 34-37; Column 35, Lines 56-67, Column 36, Column 37, Lines 1-19).

Art Unit: 2623

Regarding Claim 9, Haneda further discloses the method of Claim 1 wherein each image of a portion of the plurality of images includes a caption and wherein the providing step (e) further includes the step of:

(e1) providing the caption for each of the portion of the plurality of images (Figures 43-46; Column 40, Lines 46-67, Column 41, Lines 1-15).

Regarding Claim 10, Haneda further discloses the method of Claim 9 wherein the caption for each of the portion of the plurality of images is a user-recorded caption and wherein caption providing step (e1) further includes the step of:

(e1i) reading the user-recorded caption for each of the portion of the plurality of images (Figures 43-46; Column 40, Lines 46-67, Column 41, Lines 1-15);

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 103

9. The following is a quotation of 35 U.S.C. 103(a) which forms the basis for all obviousness rejections set forth in this Office action:

(a) A patent may not be obtained though the invention is not identically disclosed or described as set forth in section 102 of this title, if the differences between the subject matter sought to be patented and the prior art are such that the subject matter as a whole would have been obvious at the time the invention was made to a person having ordinary skill in the art to which said subject matter pertains. Patentability shall not be negated by the manner in which the invention was made.

10. Claims 2, 3, 21 and 22 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 103(a) as being unpatentable over Haneda (U.S. 6,459,511) in view of Kaplan (U.S. 5,963,916).

Regarding Claim 2, Haneda does not explicitly disclose the method of Claim 1 wherein the purchasing step (a) can occur prior to receiving the plurality of images from the user.

Kaplan discloses a system for on-line user-interface multimedia based preview wherein purchasing can occur prior to receiving a plurality of images from the user (Figure 34; Column 15, Lines 40-67).

It would have been obvious to a person of ordinary skill in the art at the time the invention was made to modify Haneda's invention according to the teachings of Kaplan to perform purchasing step (a) prior to receiving the plurality of images from the user because it will expand versatility of ordering images from a desired album utilizing on-line ordering based on prior subscription.

Regarding Claim 3, Haneda does not explicitly disclose the method of Claim 1 wherein the purchasing step (a) can occur prior to the plurality of images being captured.

Kaplan discloses a system for on-line user-interface multimedia based preview wherein purchasing can occur prior to the plurality of images being captured (Figure 34; Column 15, Lines 40-67).

It would have been obvious to a person of ordinary skill in the art at the time the invention was made to modify Haneda's invention according to the teachings of Kaplan to perform purchasing step (a) prior to the plurality of images being captured because it will expand versatility of ordering images from a desired album utilizing on-line ordering based on prior subscription.

With regards to Claim 21, arguments analogous to those presented for Claim 2 are applicable to Claim 21.

With regards to Claim 22, arguments analogous to those presented for Claim 3 are applicable to Claim 22.

Art Unit: 2623

11. Claims 4 and 23 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 103(a) as being unpatentable over Haneda (U.S. 6,459,511) in view of Morag (U.S. 6,324,545).

Regarding Claim 4, Haneda does not explicitly disclose the method of claim 1 wherein the receiving step (a) further includes the step of:

(c1) receiving from the user the information, if any, and the plurality of images directly from the digital imaging device.

Morag discloses a method of generating an album wherein a plurality of images directly from the digital imaging device (Figure 1; Column 5, Lines 46-59).

It would have been obvious to a person of ordinary skill in the art at the time the invention was made to modify Haneda's invention according to the teachings of Morag to receive from the user the information, if any, and the plurality of images directly from the digital imaging device because it will expedite image processing for generating a personalized album.

With regards to Claim 23, arguments analogous to those presented for Claim 4 are applicable to Claim 23.
